

Inglewood Estate Wines

2013 Shiraz

Inglewood Estate produces single vineyard wines that are not blended. They are usually full bodied created by wet winters and hot dry summers. In 2013 the growing season was drier than usual in winter and a wetter than usual summer.

This produced a lighter style and, while having the legendary raspberry and cracked pepper notes, the level of tannins is much reduced.

This is our eldest daughter Rebecca's favourite tippie.

2013 will continue to improve for at least another 5 years.
